Dear AOCLE members,

RE: Harue J. Marsden New Educator Travel Award

In 2017, the AOCLE established the Harue J. Marsden New Educator Travel Award to honor the memory of Dr. Harue J. Marsden, who was a Professor and Associate Dean of Clinical Education at the Southern California College of Optometry (SCCO) at Marshall B. Ketchum University in Fullerton, California. Dr. Marsden was a contact lens educator and a devoted member of the AOCLE, and the association wanted to honor her contribution by inviting a new contact lens educator to attend their first AOCLE workshop. This opportunity would help a novice CL educator, who would otherwise not be able to attend, network with other educators from all the North American schools and colleges of optometry.

Eligibility: A new contact lens educator who has never attended an AOCLE workshop. There should be no more than one application per school or college.

Application: Nominations of no more than one page outlining his/her qualifications and contribution to contact lens education (didactic/laboratory/clinic) at your institution should be submitted by the chief or other administrator at your institution.

Deadline: All information must be received by March 8, 2019 and should be submitted electronically to the AOCLE Chair, Katherine Clore at kclore@uab.edu.

Judging: All applications will be reviewed by the AOCLE Executive Committee. Recipients will be notified soon after the AOCLE mid-year planning meeting in early April.

Travel Award: One travel award will be granted per year. The recipient will be invited to that year's annual workshop and their travel, accommodation and workshop expenses will be covered by the travel grant. This year's annual workshop will be hosted by the Pacific University College of Optometry, from May 30- June 2, 2019. The recipient is expected to attend the entire meeting.

Report: A brief paragraph detailing their experience is expected from the recipient and may be posted in a future AOCLE newsletter and/or on the AOCLE website.

Please consider nominating a new educator for this award!

Sincerely,
